

Macon-Bibb County Master Naturalist Program

Come join this adult environmental education class for Central Georgia.
During the spring session, we will focus on:

- Natural History
- Ecology
- Invasive Species
- Fall-line geology
- Wetlands
- Waste Management
- Recycling
- Forest ecology
- Timber & game management

Our fall session (Thursdays in October) will focus on wildlife, water & waste water, insects, and much more!

Schedule:

Classes meet on Thursdays from 9 am - 5 pm
May 4-May 25, 2017

Tour sites include Ocmulgee National Monument and Charlane Plantation

Cost:

$80- Includes class materials, name badge, and transportation

Register By:

Friday, April 28

For More Info:

Call: 478-751-6338

E-mail: karolk@uga.edu

The Master Naturalist Program is an adult environmental education program offered by the UGA Warnell School of Forestry and Natural Resources through the Macon-Bibb County Cooperative Extension.